18th Post - Medicaid Fraud Happening via Telephone calls and BILLING/CODING MEDICAID for "wellness checks"

April 25, 2024

This person called pretending to be with United Healthcare doing a "wellness check" with me and my medications including supplements. I declined this silly service request and told them I talk to my healthcare provider and my pharmacist about all my meds and don't want United Healthcare providing this service to me. The number did not register as United Healthcare as well giving way to the phony scam they tried to connect me with, I'm assuming this a new MEDICAID "Consultation SCAM" for billing purposes over the phone in order to bill MEDICAID for services rendered via a phony call. How in depth this scam gets is unknown, but I can assure you people are falling for it thinking their insurance is following up with them and med services are being billed to MEDICAID patients. I would highly suggest checking into my own personal information regarding this scam taking place to further understand the agencies and docs involved in this scam!

You can probably check into my name for evidence of this happening and someone getting paid to do this somehow to me?! If that's the case you need to investigate this and track down the people responsible for this kind of fraud and mark the coding tags in your billing system as fraud as well.

Your welcome
